

I feel that the following actions should take place in regards to the Morse code requirement of the Amateur Service rules (Part 97):

1. The Element 1 requirement should be dropped for all license classes.
2. All Technician license holders should be granted Technician Plus privileges.
3. The CW only sub bands should be retained.